players, film stars and scientists have enjoyed honour and dignity. It is because of all their great efforts and difficulties grim struggle and great sacrifice. A man has a moral right to desire any honour, position, power and wealth in life. So, desire only when you deserve or deserve first, then desire.

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below :

Man longs for a happy and peaceful life. He does not want to face any sorrow, misfortunes or fortunes. For him, life should be a continuous flow of success, peace progress and prosperity. Man should, however, realize that adversities in life have their own advantages. It is these moments of stress, suffering and misfortunes which bring forth the best faculties of man. These moments make him thoughtful and believe in God. Infact man learns a lot from his failures and sufferings. Just as the heat of the fire turns impure gold into pure, failures give us courage to work hard and face adversities bravely and overcome them.
